

THE JACKSON HERALD.

B. F. LUSK, Editor.

IN THE INTEREST OF THE PEOPLE AND THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

$1.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

VOL. VII.

JACKSON, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1904.

NO. 50

Our Fall Bargain Sale will begin Friday, Oct. 28, and continue till Christmas

Calico.

In all the best colors and best grades. The kind that you have been paying 5c and 6c for. We have bought several thousand yards at a bargain and are selling them at less than wholesale price.

Unheard of Bargains until Christmas.

You will get a ticket each time you spend $1.25 which will get you one 10c doll, or you can save them until you get two tickets and get a 20c doll, or four tickets and get a 40c doll, or eight tickets and get an 80c doll. Remember that you can also buy goods cheaper than ever before.

Shetland Floss.

Fleisher's Shetland floss at 75c box. This price will hold good until Christmas unless our stock is sooner sold out.

Men's wool socks in reach of every one. Think of

BLANKETS.

10-4 blankets at 30 each. See our big stock at a sure bargain.

Millinery Goods.

We are showing all the up-to-date millinery goods, and at prices that will suit every one. You can get a nice doll free by trading with us.

18 lbs best sugar - $1.00
Best rice - 6c lb
Good rice - 4c lb
Layton's full size baking powder, per can - 8c
Large can lye hominy, per can - 8c
Try our Heinz kraut, it is the best.

Rugs 30 by 54 inches for 97c each.

These rugs are in ten different patterns and would be considered good values at $1.50. Remember, only 97c.

We have a special low price on holiday furniture. Visit this department.

JACKSON STORE CO., JACKSON, MISSOURI

DOLLS! DOLLS! DOLLS!

Beginning Friday, October 28, we are going to give dolls away to our customers until Christmas. Do you want one?

For each $1.25 worth of goods bought for cash or trade we will give a doll 11 inches long, worth 10c.

For $2.50 trade we will give a doll 15 inches long, worth 20c.

For $5.00 trade we will give a doll dressed in Satin, with moving eyes, worth 40c.

For $10.00 trade we will give a large doll dressed in Satin, with moving eyes, worth 80c.

We give dolls on Dry Goods, Shoes, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Millinery, Groceries, Hardware, Ladies' Capses and Jackets and all notions.

We are prepared to handle Turkeys to your interest.

THE PLACE WHERE YOUR DOLLAR GOES FARTHEST.

Men's Underwear

We have men's extra heavy fleeced underwear that sell the world over at 50c each that we will sell at 45c saved is 5c earned.

Fascinators.

Worth 35 and 40c, go in this sale at the small sum of 25c. Don't miss our other bargains in fascinators.

LOCALS

Wheat $1.08 to-day.

Hear Walbridge at the court house to-morrow.

Geo. Cobble attended the World's fair last week.

The Daily News at the Cape has suspended publication.

Mrs. Lena Boss returned from the World's fair Saturday.

A. J. Wallman of New Wells paid our office a pleasant visit Saturday.

Chosen rye seed at McAtee & Buerkle.

Dr. Woods of East St. Louis is visiting his son, Dr. S. E. Woods this city.

Mr. Geo. Woods of Leemon has purchased a fine piano for his daughter Blanche.

There were good crowds at the Round Pond and Schoenebeck School Houses last week to hear the Republican speakers.

The J. M. A. faculty and a few others enjoyed a social evening at the residence of Geo. Woods of Leemon last Friday night.

Winter turf oats at McAtee & Buerkle.

The Banner buggy factory may and may not be established at the Cape. If everything suits Mr. Gardner may locate it there.

There will be a concert given at Turner hall next Thursday night, November 3, for the benefit of the Cemetery Improvement society.

Wm. B. Sides of Zalma called on us yesterday. Mr. Sides came home to attend the burial of his father, W. F. Sides of Leemon, who died last Sunday.

Cloak day at Bruening & Kerstner D. G. Co. November 2, 1904.

THAT molasses made by R. S. Sides is good enough for the editor of the Cape Girardeau Daily News, if there is such an editor. How does this suit you, brother?

Mr. A. Reck and wife of Pocahontas passed through Jackson last Saturday on their way to see Mrs. Reck's brother, Aug. Jaeger of Allenville, whom she has not seen for sixteen years.

Carter county has a Republican paper at Chilton.

The J. M. A. is doing excellent work this year and its attendance is good.

Cape Girardeau is to have a new tobacco factory with $10,000 capital.

The father and mother of Rev. A. T. Osbron are visiting here for a few weeks.

Rev. Cheatham tells us that he will reply to Prof. Brooks' article next week.

Wanted—A number of last spring's mules. N. M. DAVIS, Fruitland, Mo.

William Steek is baggage master on the Jackson branch in the absence of Dee Bailey this week.

Dr. Warren B. Smith was acquitted of the charge of murder in the Scott county circuit court last week.

Newton Sample and wife of Grassy, Mo., are visiting Mrs. Sample's mother, Mrs. Cotner, at Pocahontas.

Cyrus P. Walbridge, Republican candidate for governor, speaks at Jackson to-morrow. Hear him.

Red top, timothy seed, orchard grass and barley at McAtee & Buerkle.

In our list of transfers last week the sale of G. W. Bast and wife to Fred Kurre should have been 159 acres instead of 59 acres.

Died, at New Wells last Saturday, the baby of Paul Diedrich and wife. Also Joseph Putz's youngest child died on the same day.

Good roads are what everybody wants. Elect Fred E. Kies to the legislature and he will do all that is in his power for a good road law.

Cloak day at Bruening & Kerstner D. G. Co. November 2, 1904.

Chas. Nagel of St. Louis will speak at Jackson on the 28th with Cyrus P. Walbridge. Mr. Nagel is a good speaker and all should hear him.

Everybody is interested in the Jackson cemetery and should attend the concert given at Turner hall next Thursday night by the ladies of the Cemetery Improvement society.

Richard Burford of California is visiting in this county.

Clarence Grant and Fred Elbrecht returned from St. Louis Monday.

Chas. Samples of Pocahontas is dangerously sick with typhoid fever.

Marcus Robb and brother of California are visiting in this county.

Remember that Dr. Barry of the Barry Germicide institution will be here all week.

Cloak day at Bruening & Kerstner D. G. Co. November 2, 1904.

C. P. Mathews of Shawneetown has moved to the Cape for school advantages. Mr. Mathews will keep books for M. E. Leming.

Married, Tuesday, in the circuit clerk's office, by Judge John A. Snider, Al Schrader and Belle Cook, both of Houck. The judge performed a very impressive ceremony.

Married, last Sunday, at the home of the bride's parents, Martin Locker and Miss Martha Hurst, Rev. Osbron officiating. We wish the young couple a successful and happy married life.

SALESMAN WANTED to look after our interest in Cape Girardeau and adjacent counties. Salary or commission. Address the Victor Oil Co., Cleveland, O.

Rose E. Marshall, a missionary from this country to China, was visiting Mrs. S. E. Woods of Jackson last week. Miss Marshall is a sister of Judge Marshall of Charleston, Mo., and formerly taught school at that place.

Read the HERALD supplement. It contains the following: 1st, Tom Watson's letter of acceptance; 2d, the Democratic bosses; 3d, Davis' Blunder; 4th, enforcing anti-trust laws; 5th, Humbugging the people; 6th, police excuses; 7th, why Butler was acquitted; 8th, Mr. Bryan's position.

G. Miltenberger & Co., have placed in the store a new light plant. It is a gas light generated by a motor which takes up a small space in the rear part of the store. The light is simply elegant. The best the town affords. So brilliant is the light that all can tell the different shades of calico by its rays.

THE SURVIVAL OF THE FOB

The fob, which has survived a century's changes, reaches its highest development of beauty, artistic quality and practical worth in the richly varied designs which are comprised in our display of

Simmons Watch Fobs

To keep good time a watch must have a good movement—the case is a matter of choice. We can supply you with a thoroughly reliable movement in any style or kind of case you may have a preference for.

We recommend the 17 jewel Hamilton in our most successful proof case, at $18.

HASSLINGER

Barb and smooth wire, nails, and staples at Sander Bros.

Attend the concert at Turner hall next Thursday night.

Hear Walbridge at the court house at Jackson to-morrow at 2 o'clock.

Keystone fencing—square meshes, no slipping—at Sander Bros.

Found, in Jackson, Saturday, Oct. 15th, in front of W. B. Schaefer's residence, a black cape. Owner can have same by paying for this local.

The Young America band will play at the Walbridge-Norton speaking here to-morrow. Every Republican in the county should be here, also the Democrats are cordially invited.

Louis E. Kies sold his fine young racing stallion, Blacklock, to Wm. Stubblefield of Oran for $3,000. It is claimed that this horse paced a mile in 2:08, this, his first season on the track.

Our neighbor of the Daily News wants us to know that he has studied grammar. Brother, we know molasses is singular, but often it is better to follow custom than grammar, so that all may grasp the thought.

Cape Girardeau County Savings Bank,

Jackson, Mo.

Capital.....$50,000.00
Surplus.....$25,000.00

We carry burglary insurance against both daylight and night robbery. We use the Mosler Sewer Door, Triple Time Lock, Burglar Proof Safe. We solicit Your business, whether large or small, promising every accommodation consistent with sound and conservative banking.

OFFICERS:

W. H. Miller, President, Ed Howard, Cashier,
W. C. Cracraft, Vice-Pres., Alvin Boss, Asst. Cashier

DIRECTORS:

W. H. Miller, W. C. Cracraft, J. L. Hinkle, Claus Kerstner,
C. W. Henderson, G. D. Statler, Ed. Howard.

Go to McAtee & Buerkle for good country sorghum and sauer kraut.

Died, on last Sunday at Leemon, W. F. Sides. Mr. Sides was painting his house last week and fell from the ladder and it is thought died from the effects of the fall. Mr. Sides was a good citizen and a man well liked by all who knew him.

Roma Sachse got his hand badly lacerated Tuesday by getting it caught in a belt on a roller at mill B. Roma has had two accidents in the last month, the first one being a fall of several feet some few weeks ago that jarred him up considerably.

Alfalfa, alsike, crimson, white and red clover seed at McAtee & Buerkle.

Last Thursday W. C. Torrence of Pocahontas died of Typhoid fever. He was the youngest son of a widowed mother. We were personally acquainted with Mr. Torrence and we know that in his death the community has lost a valued citizen and his mother a dutiful son. He leaves a mother, one sister and two brothers to mourn his death.

NOTICE TO HUNTERS—Any one trapping or hunting on my farm will be prosecuted to full extent of the law.

JOS. F. MEDLEY.

Joseph Milde, while out coon-hunting in company with several Jackson and Cape boys last Saturday night, got his foot badly cut with an axe. Dr. Patton at the Cape dressed the wound, it requiring seven stitches to sew it up.

Considerable excitement and gossip was occasioned last week by the supposed discovery of a corpse at the bottom of a carload of coal shipped in to mill B. We don't think there was any human body there; perhaps it was a dead dog or cat, or may be the coal handlers got tired along towards the bottom of the car.

The Republican meeting at Concord last Tuesday night was well attended and much enthusiasm was shown. Speeches were made by C. H. Daves, R. M. Sawyer and B. F. Lusk. Messrs. Daves and Sawyer made most excellent speeches and they were appreciated by the audience. Concord is all right and will vote the straight Republican ticket.